Thank you for choosing OCR A Level Religious Studies: Philosophy, Ethics and Christian Developments for one of your A Levels – it's a great choice and we are sure you will enjoy it.

In order to prepare for the course, we would like you to register and complete the Cogito Introduction to A Level RS online course. It consists of several online lessons, quizzes and culminates in a final assessment for which you will gain a certificate. You will be required to show this certificate to your subject teacher when you start at High Storrs in September as proof the course has been completed.

Please follow the attached instructions as to how to register and complete the course. Please do get in touch if you have any technical difficulties or don't have access to the internet as alternative work will be provided j.collins@highstorrs.sheffield.co.uk

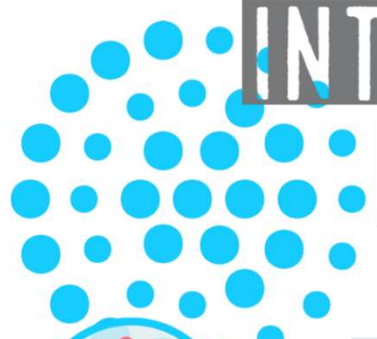

I have also attached a list of books, films, podcasts and documentaries you may like to begin to explore over the summer in order to give you the best possible start to your A Level.

We look forward to meeting you!

Mrs Collins, Mrs White and Mr Wakeman
