

Start of exam season (14th May) -> May half term (25th May):

- You MUST attend registration and ALL lessons. Time will be used preparing for exams not yet taken.
- Where an exam has already been sat, you should bring revision materials for private study towards exams not yet taken.
- Subject teachers will be flexible and show consideration in allowing you to study for different subjects when needed. Eg when there is an afternoon exam, some of the morning lessons may be given over to private study where appropriate.
- You MUST register in the morning with your form tutor and in lesson 4 for afternoon sessions BEFORE gathering in the dining room to attend an exam.
- ALL revision sessions during the day and after school are compulsory for subjects you are taking exams in. REGISTERS WILL BE TAKEN

After Summer half term (4th June onwards) -> end of exam season :

- You MUST attend lessons for subjects where the exam has not yet taken place unless you are in an exam.
- You MUST attend registration if you are attending a lesson P1 of that day.
- You do not need to register with your form tutor or P4 teacher if you are taking an exam, just go straight to the dining room.
- ALL revision sessions during the day and after school are compulsory for subjects you are taking exams in. REGISTERS WILL BE TAKEN
