

Bridging the Gap work for Sociology A level

You are to research one current sociological issue. You need to select an item from the news of the past 2 months, and write a report addressing the tasks below. The topic you choose may be to do with family, education, culture and identity, religion and beliefs, mass media, crime and deviance, power, work and leisure, or any other sociological issue.

Tasks:

1. Describe the issue (50 words);
2. Explain why this is sociological (50 words);
3. Suggest what the wider implications are of this issue on society. (100 words).

Your report must be brought to the first session and given to Mr Williamson.

Your report must state – in full – the sources you have used in your research.
